

Reconciling Nature and Culture in a Global Context?
 Lessons from the World Heritage List

Map 1: Detail from the map “World Heritage 2006”, with locations of World Heritage sites highlighted that are featured in this report (Map: UNESCO World Heritage Centre; Graphics: Birgit Kuehn).

Map 2: No 'Terra Nullius' – Verheijen's map of Komodo Island, illustrative of a dense landscape of named places and sites of significance to local people (Map: Verheijen 1982).

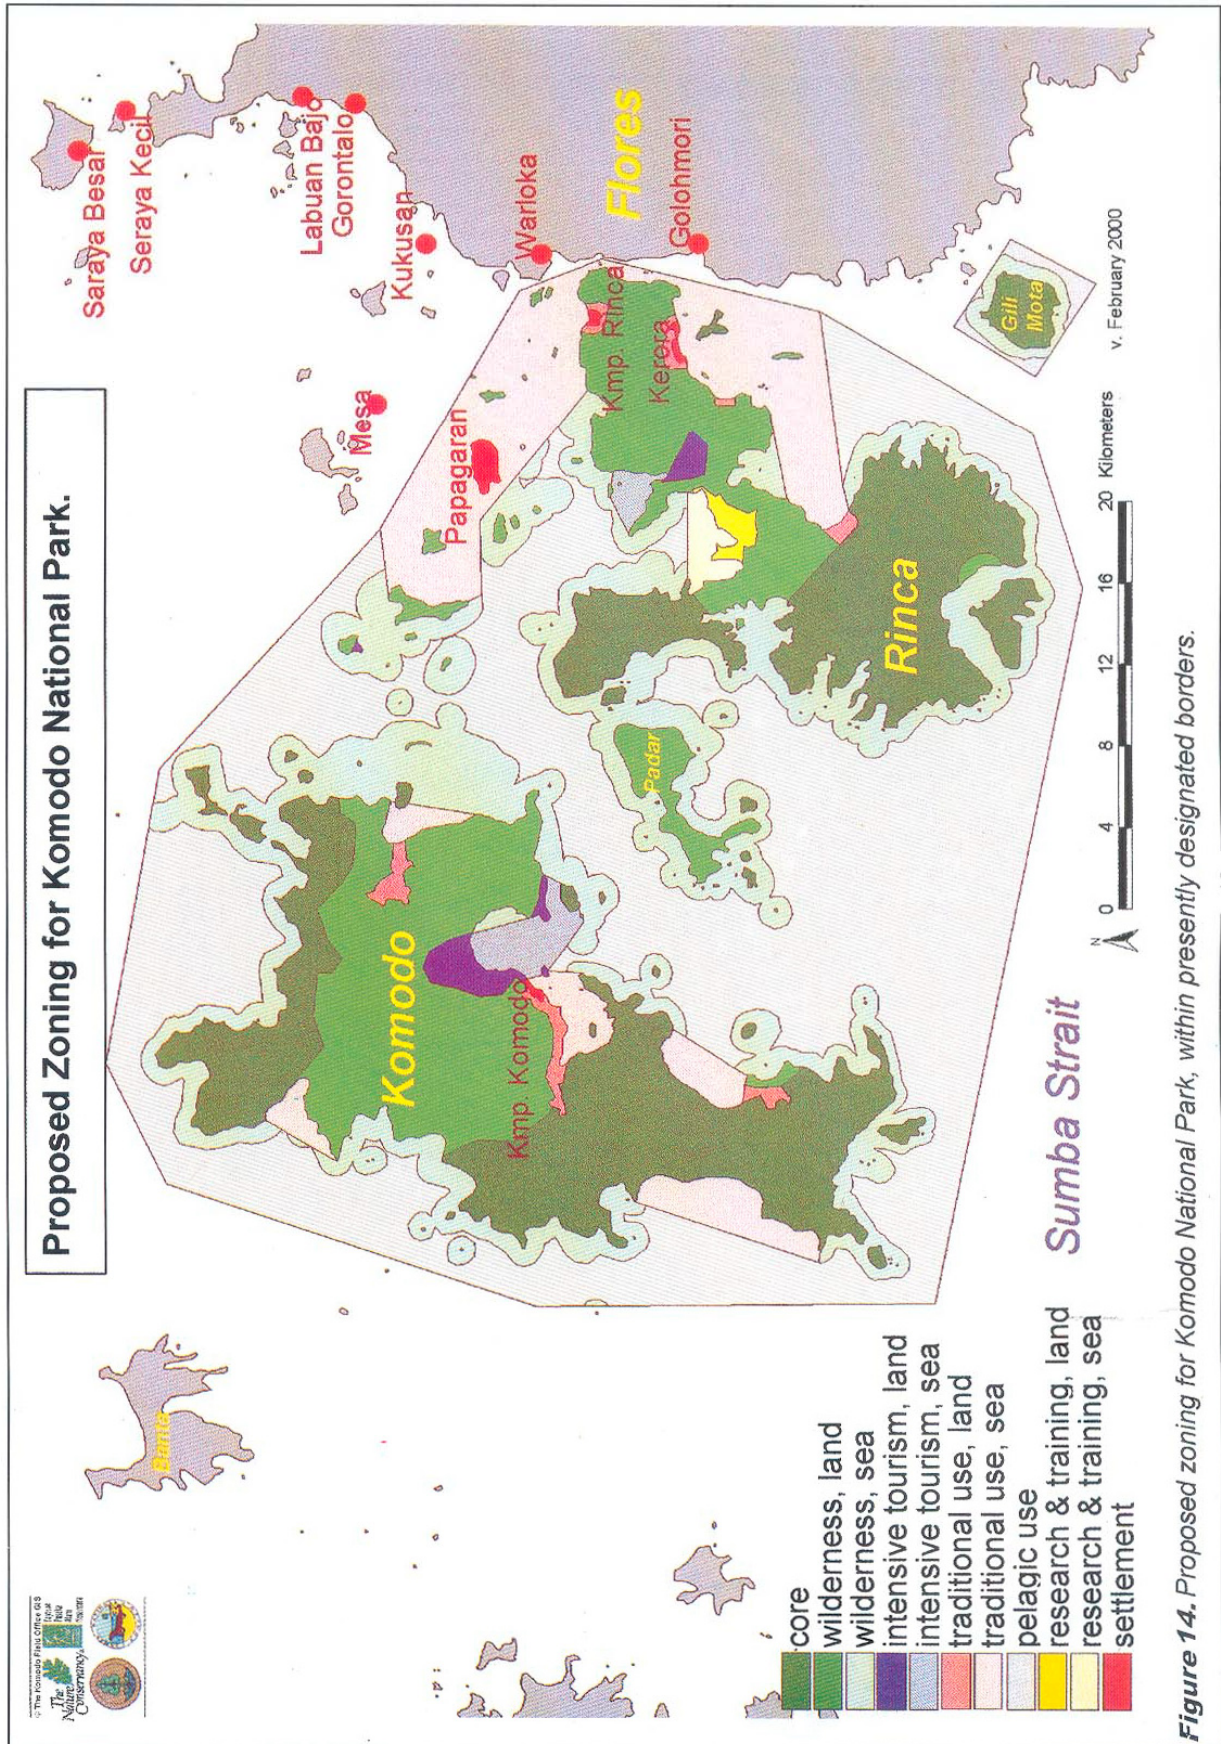

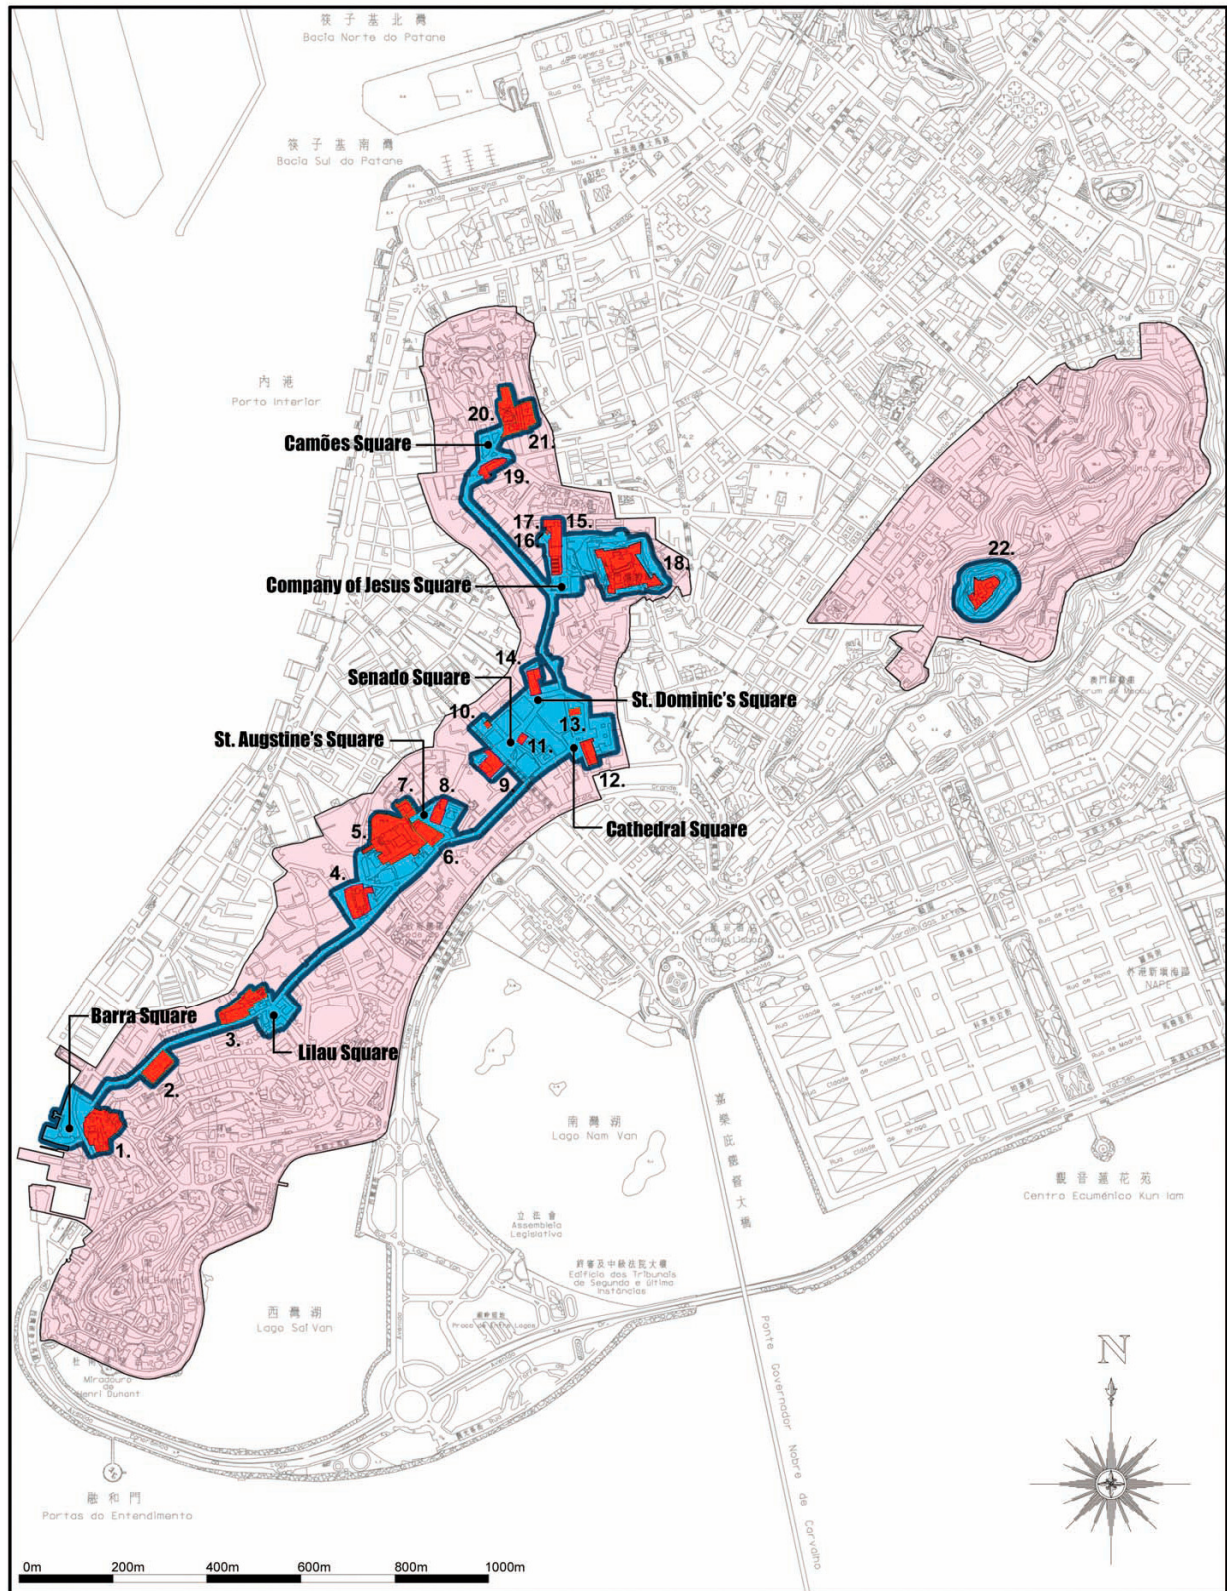

Figure 14. Proposed zoning for Komodo National Park, within presently designated borders.

Map 3: Zoning system and buffer areas in Komodo National Park (Map: 25 Year Master Plan for Management, 2000-2025, Komodo National Park, page 42).

WORLD HERITAGE: THE HISTORIC CENTRE OF MACAO

LEGEND:

MAP 2

- | | | | | |
|-----------------------------------|-------------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------|------------------------------|
| 1. A-Ma Temple | 7. Sir Robert Ho Tung Library | 13. Lou Kau Mansion | 19. St. Anthony's Church | World Heritage |
| 2. Moorish Barracks | 8. St. Augustine's Church | 14. St. Dominic's Church | 20. Casa Garden | Monuments & Sites |
| 3. Mandarin's House | 9. "Leal Senado" Building | 15. Ruins of St. Paul's | 21. Protestant Cemetery | Urban Squares & Streetscapes |
| 4. St. Lawrence's Church | 10. Sam Kai Vui Kun | 16. Na Tcha Temple | 22. Guia Fortress | Buffer Zones |
| 5. St. Joseph's Seminary & Church | 11. Holy House of Mercy | 17. Section of the Old City Walls | | |
| 6. Dom Pedro V Theatre | 12. Cathedral | 18. Mount Fortress | | |

Map 4: The varied cultural heritage landscape of contemporary Macau (Map: Macau Information Kit, www.macauheritage.net).